

Coquitlam River Watershed Roundtable

*Kwikwetlem, known as “Red fish up the river.
A living river that reveals its spirit.*

Community Roundtable Open House – Agenda Clean Water | Healthy Fish | Great Beer!

Building a voice for the watershed through the Roundtable

Location: Mariner Brewing, H-1100 Lansdowne Drive, Coquitlam

Date: Wednesday, October 17, 2018

Time: 4:00 – 7:00 pm

Meet with old friends, make new ones, and take part in a series of 5 minute pop-up talks throughout the evening to:

- Hear what we are doing to keep our watershed healthy,
- Help us to care for our healthy watershed and carry on with our plan, and
- Give your voice to sustain the Roundtable!

4:00 pm	Doors Open, Check-in and meet our Emcee, Caitlin Hickenbotham
5:00 pm	Our History, Our Present, Our Future, Jill Dwyer, Roundtable Coordinator
5:30 pm	5 Minute Talk – Building a Collaboration with Developers, Blaire Chisholm, VP, Brook Pooni & Associates
6:00 pm	5 Minute Talk – Redfish Up the River: The Roundtable’s Collaboration with Kwikwetlem First Nation, Craig Orr, Kwikwetlem First Nation Technical Advisor and Kelsey Taylor, Kwikwetlem First Nation Planning Coordinator
6:30 pm	5 Minute Talk – What’s Swimming at the Hoy Creek Hatchery, Robbin Whachell, President, Hoy-Scott Watershed Society
7:00 pm	Event Ends

The Roundtable gratefully acknowledges its funding partners:

Real Estate Foundation of BC	BC Freshwater Legacy Initiative	Vancity
Kwikwetlem First Nation	City of Port Coquitlam	Metro Vancouver
Fisheries and Oceans Canada	Watershed Watch Salmon Society	New Earth Marketing
Burke Mountain Holdings Ltd	North Fraser Salmon Assistance Project	Jack Cewe Ltd
City of Coquitlam	Port Coquitlam & District Hunting and Fishing Club	Mariner Brewing

Want To Learn More About the Roundtable? Website: coquitlamriverwatershed.ca

Like us on Facebook

Follow us on Twitter

